

HATTERS ESU

KENYA 26

Agenda

- Summary of this weekend
- Risk management
- Itinerary recap and be prepared
- Upcoming Key Dates and Details

Risk Management

Sickness
(hygiene)

Separation

Infection (environment, animals)

Wildlife

Crime

Risk Management

There are lots of risks on this expedition, we do risky things because we can manage that risk.

We need everyone to work together to manage risk.

Be prepared – hattersesu.com/kenyainternal

Ann delivers expeditions to amazing parts of the world year-round for private clients, schools and youth groups. We have worked with Ann successfully in India and Morocco. Welcome to trekMountains | trekMountains - <https://www.trekmountains.com/>

Travel Readiness

hattersesu.com/kenyainternal

eTAs – Hatters ESU to lead on process, cooperation required

Passports – participant responsibility

Antimalarial medication – participant responsibility

Vaccinations – participant responsibility

AMREF Flying Doctors – Hatters ESU and trekMountains to lead on process, cooperation required

$ - participant responsibility (nobody NEEDs to take any)

Kit – participant responsibility, we're here to help

Expedition Kit

hattersesu.com/kentyainternal

- Cool Nights (pack layers but nothing bulky)
- Warm Days (loose and light clothing)
- Cover whole body
- Pack light – we're moving a lot
- Footwear
- Personal First Aid (water purification tablets essential)
- Use what you have already, very limited investment needed (if any)
- Bags, boots, and sleeping